This is the venture of luxuriantly bearded Mark Creed and business partner (and winemaker) Daniel Eggleton. Their first wine (an intriguing blend of shiraz, cabernet franc and viognier) was made in 2004, with a number of different Shirazs, Merlot, Cabernet Franc and a little Grenache in the pipeline. The partners also own a consulting wing, called C & E Dry Grown Projects Pty Ltd, to make wines for others, and to collaboratively market and distribute those wines.

The Pretty Miss Shiraz Cabernet Franc Viognier 2004 A light- to medium-bodied, long and tangy wine with the unusual blend giving very good length; fine tannins to close. Screwcap. 14.5° alc. Rating 90 To 2012 $20
